TEST EQUIPMENT DISTRIBUTORS NAMES RICK BALLINGER VICE PRESIDENT

Troy, MI, June 11, 2007 – Test Equipment Distributors (TED) has announced that Rick Ballinger has been named vice president of this global provider of nondestructive testing equipment and services to the automotive, aerospace and other industries. Rick will have overall responsibility for operations, service and technical support.

Prior to his promotion to vice president, Rick had served as operations manager since 2002. He joined Test Equipment Distributors in 1984 as a manufacturing technician and was named service manager in 1995. Rick is a graduate of Oakland Community College with an Associates Degree in Electronics. He resides in Oxford, MI.

Headquartered in Troy, Michigan, Test Equipment Distributors LLC and its affiliated companies, X-Ray Industries and X-R-I Testing, have served the nondestructive testing and inspection needs of a wide range of industries since 1941. With six regional warehouses and over $1 million in inventory, TED provides prompt delivery of recognized brand name and private labeled nondestructive testing equipment and supplies.
